About This Game

Diving Trunks is a casual dodging/shoot 'em up style game featuring a seafaring elephant who has dropped his peanuts overboard.

It is your task to help 'Trunks' dive down into the deep ocean to retrieve as many peanuts as possible, all whilst gulping air bubbles to stay alive and avoiding unkindly marine life.

Features crisp, cartoony graphics and original music. A wide variety of enemies ensure infinite replayability. Dodge smaller marine creatures then battle colossal sea monsters by shooting peanuts from your trunk! Recommended for all ages.

GAME MODES

- Endless: Collect peanuts and survive for as long as you can. Encounter Boss Monsters with randomised features - prepare for anything from a simple battle to a total onslaught.
- Challenge: Collect a set number of peanuts before reaching the sea floor. Mysteries of the deep are waiting to be unlocked. Each playthrough is completely different - no two attempts are the same.
- Hunger: Prevent rapid starvation by frequently munching peanuts.
- Numbers: Gulp numbered bubbles in the correct sequence; wrong numbers reduce your air supply.
- Fetch: Collect a target star bubble and return it to the base; air granted only upon return.

- Haste: Forward velocity is constant; steer clear of danger, if you can.
  - Patterns: Marine creatures swim in geometric patterns; navigate through gaps in the shapes.
  - Slalom: Swim through a series of gates; a wrong or missed gate earns one of three strikes.
  - Panic: Avoid a fatal panic attack by staying clear of certain creatures.

BOSS FIGHTS

Battle relentless sea monsters whose size and defenses are randomly-generated - who knows what you'll encounter in the depths.
Use the peanuts you've collected as ammunition to defeat these deep-sea behemoths.

POWER-UPS

Collect and use various special abilities to assist Trunks:

- Bubble Shield: Deploys a protective bubble around Trunks at the expense of his air supply.
- Boost: Gives Trunks a speed boost in his current direction.
- Repel: Redirects enemy creatures away.
- Stun: Immobilises all visible enemy creatures.
- Magnut: Attracts all surrounding peanuts.
- Relive: Grants another chance at life.
- Tank: Refills the air meter to maximum.

DIFFICULTY MODES

Beginners through to hardcore gamers can now play at a difficulty level that reflects their ability:

- Simple: A very basic challenge for the inexperienced; suitable for youngsters.
- Easy: A decent challenge for those not wishing to stress.
- Normal: A standard challenge for the average gamer.
- Hard: A more intense challenge for those wanting to prove themselves.
- Extreme: A serious challenge reserved only for the elite gamer.
- Chaos: An unpredictable challenge of mixed difficulty.

MYSTERIES

Unlock 15 game-changing mysteries - including various effects and new marine creatures - by playing Challenge mode.

BACKGROUND

Diving Trunks is the result of a private game jam contest combining the theme of 'underwater' and item 'elephant'. The initial game idea grew and has been further developed over a year with a multitude of features and content, such as additional game modes, effects, and original music by first-time composer Tom Hines.

I played it. It wasn't memorable enough for a more detailed review. I feel that I had fun playing it though. Maybe.. in somewhere on internet I read it's like the lost vikings, it's not, trash for me. This game I think had a fair story but gameplay is horrid. Cartooney and nowhere near as good as the Left for Dead games. My game crashed and was buggy. I tried playing it for a couple hours. Poor checkpoints then when trying to exit games crashed then the last hours play was lost. I got a refund. The game was like games from 10 years ago. These guys failed. Sorry but not worth it. Use the $9.99 on a much better game. I wanted to try it and didn't expect a lot but crashes and lost play is unacceptable.. Nice and fun game. Has great potential and I only hope they make it into a long lasting game.. I bought this game just so I can take a dump on Rebellion Studio.

A few years ago, Rebellion initiated a lawsuit against Stardock/Ironclad over their game "Sins of a Solar Empire: Rebellion", claiming that anyone who saw the title would associate that game with Rebellion Studio and not Stardock/Ironclad. Now every time I see Rebellion Studio I associate it with trite and meaningless lawsuits.

Way to shoot yourselves in the foot there, Rebellion. Enjoy your first and last purchase from me, don't spend it all on one lawyer.

A review? Can it wait for a bit? I'm in the middle of some calibrations.. amazing game, I've owned a disc copy since 2004 and probably sunk more hours into it than any other game I've played. If you like games that let you create a living, breathing world, this is definitely for you.

That said, it's really not for everyone, the game moves at an incredibly slow pace and while easy to learn, can be difficult to master. It can be, at times, too realistic for it's own good. Your people cannot be controlled or ordered around, and the only way to get them to do what you need them to do is to create a culture in which they would want to do it, which can be difficult at times, and definitely frustrating when your bricklayers ignore certain buildings in favour of others, or when your labourers decide they'd rather sit around and do nothing than quarry stone. However, there's nothing more satisfying than mastering the game, and I'd highly recommend this to anyone who thinks they have the patience for it.. There's just not enough here, in my opinion. It feels like an alpha build, a "feature complete" test rather than a finished release. The feel is rarely captivating, and there are a few annoyances that contribute to losing flow.

It's not so bad I'd ask for a refund, given the low price, but it's also not a game I could recommend.. Although it is like your classic bubble shooter game, you will not grow bored of this game. It may seem easy at first but you will soon learn you have a challenge. A challenge that has you addicted to playing for hours till you beat that person. The characters are adorable and the dialogue is hilarious.. Not part of the Season Pass. We're talking about a 20 bucks Season Pass.

Two maps (one predator, one combat) that are already in the game.

At 75% sale it might worth a shot, otherwise not really.. it cute fun game easy to look for thing some time. very good should be bought if you paly lots of air mech. Really fun game, An amazing world, Brings back good memories from my childhood, Well worth my money
